EXTERNALLY:

This highly regarded detached bungalow, is set on a popular residential street, in the heart of a hugely desirable village. Filled with amenities, idyllic countryside walks and ease of access to Newark Town Centre. The front aspect is welcomed with dropped kerb vehicular access onto a double (wrought iron) gated, block paved, multi-vehicle driveway. Sufficient for a caravan/ motorhome. The small front garden is gravelled, for minimal maintenance. There is access to the entrance door, with external light. There are fenced side boundaries and a low-level walled front boundary. A left sided personal gate opens to a concrete pathway, with fenced borders and access to the concealed gas meter. This leads down to a delightful and secluded paved seating area, with outside tap and well-tended planted borders. Showcasing complementary bushes and shrubs. The paving continues round the bungalow, with a rear external light. This follows to the BEAUTIFULLY MAINTAINED REAR GARDEN. Predominantly laid to lawn, enjoying attractive planted borders, a large paved seating area and a small paved pathway, down to an extensive gravelled section, at the bottom of the garden. Promoting privacy and tranquillity, all year round! There is a double external power socket, additional external light, fully fenced side and rear boundaries.
