EXTERNALLY:

This tremendous modern home is peacefully positioned off the beaten track, within a quiet and convenient residential cul-de-sac. The front aspect is greeted with a tarmac driveway, with barked borders. A paved pathway leads to the composite entrance door. The attractive front garden is laid to lawn, which could also be adapted to create further off-street parking options. There is a lovely raised flower bed. The paved pathway continues to the right side aspect, with a secure timber personal gate, with external up/ down light, concealed gas/ electricity meters and an outside tap. This leads to a delightfully secluded paved seating area, with high-level raised plant beds and two external up/ down lights. This is also accessed via the uPVC double glazed french doors in the lovely living room. A low-level wooden personal gate opens into the LOVELY LANDSCAPED GARDEN. Full of brightness, vibrancy and privacy. Having been thoughtfully designed and predominantly gravelled, with a lovely paved entertainment area, complementary planted borders and a raised decked seating terrace with rope-fenced boundaries. There is provision for a garden shed. Two further external up/ down lights, part fenced and hedged side/ rear boundaries. Ensuring a vast degree of maturity and privacy, all year round.
