EXTERNALLY:

Occupying a generous plot in the heart of a picturesque semi-rural village, this sizeable semi-detached home enjoys a highly sought-after location, conveniently positioned close to local amenities and with excellent access to the A1.

The property is approached via an attractive landscaped frontage, featuring an extensive gravelled driveway providing ample off-road parking for multiple vehicles, including a caravan or motorhome. The well-maintained front garden is predominantly laid to lawn, with a pathway leading to the front entrance beneath a storm canopy. A high degree of privacy is afforded by mature hedging to the front, a newly erected fence to the left-hand boundary, and a well-established privet hedge to the right.

A decorative wrought-iron gate to the side of the property opens onto a concrete pathway, complete with an outside tap, leading to the beautifully appointed rear garden. Predominantly laid to lawn, the garden is complemented by an attractive selection of established shrubs, bushes and mature trees, creating a tranquil outdoor setting. There is provisional space for two garden sheds and a greenhouse, while a secluded paved seating area is accessed directly from the conservatory through uPVC double-glazed French doors, making it ideal for outdoor dining, relaxing and entertaining.

Additional features include access to the oil tank, with the rear garden enjoying an exceptional degree of privacy thanks to fully enclosed fenced side boundaries and a tall conifer hedge along the rear boundary.
