PERIOD PROPERTY POTENTIAL!

An exciting opportunity to acquire this generously proportioned, character-filled end-terrace home, occupying a delightful position within a highly desirable & conveniently located cul-de-sac. The property is a short walk from the town centre and enjoys excellent access to local amenities, major road links & both train stations.

Offering an abundance of SPACE & ORIGINAL FEATURES, this charming period home provides a fantastic blank canvas for buyers looking to create a home tailored to their own style and requirements. The versatile accommodation also offers considerable scope for further improvement and adaptation, subject to any necessary consents.

Access is provided via a private passageway leading to the side entrance. From here, the inner hallway gives access to two GENEROUSLY-SIZED RECEPTION ROOMS, a kitchen with useful pantry and a ground-floor bathroom. An attached conservatory, currently accessed externally from the private courtyard, provides additional space with further potential.

To the first floor are THREE EXCELLENT-SIZED BEDROOMS, including a particularly spacious master bedroom benefiting from an EN-SUITE SHOWER ROOM.

Outside, the property enjoys the unusual advantage of a small driveway leading to a substantial 25ft timber garage, providing valuable parking, storage or workshop space.

The private rear garden offers another excellent opportunity to create an attractive outdoor space to suit individual tastes, while also benefiting from a useful attached brick-built outbuilding.

Further benefits include uPVC double glazing, gas central heating via a modern combination boiler, residents on-street permit parking and NO ONWARD CHAIN!

With its generous proportions, period character and considerable potential, this property represents an exciting opportunity! Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the SPACE & SCOPE on offer.

EXTERNALLY:

This attractive period terraced home occupies a convenient, central location towards the end of a desirable residential cul-de-sac.

To the front, a dropped kerb provides vehicular access onto a small concrete driveway, with potential for further enhancement subject to any necessary adaptations to the attached timber garage. The front garden is predominantly gravelled, enclosed by picket-fenced front and side boundaries, with access to concealed gas and electricity meters.

A secure personal door opens onto a private concrete side passageway, complemented by an external ceiling light, providing access to the side entrance door. The pathway continues through a wrought-iron gate into the enclosed rear garden.

The garden is predominantly hard landscaped with extensive paved areas, hosting a variety of mature trees and shrubs. There is also access to a useful attached brick-built outbuilding. A concrete courtyard provides direct access to both the conservatory and kitchen, benefitting from an outside tap and external security lighting. With predominantly fenced boundaries, the garden offers excellent potential for a purchaser to adapt and personalise the outside space to suit their individual requirements.

Residents Permit Parking:

On road parking is available on a first come first serve basis, located directly outside the property itself. The vendors pay approximately £40 per annum for a parking pass. Each property can apply for two per household.
