EXTERNALLY:

This eye-catching and contemporary semi-detached home enjoys a desirable residential position, conveniently located for access to a range of local amenities and main road links.

The front aspect benefits from a dropped kerb providing vehicular access onto a tarmac driveway, allowing side-by-side off-street parking for multiple vehicles. A shared front garden is predominantly laid to lawn, complemented by partially established shrubbery and a paved pathway leading to the front entrance door, with an external up/ down light. The pathway continues along the left side of the property, featuring decorative gravelled borders, concealed gas/electricity meters, and provision for an EV CHARGER. The pathway continues to a timber pedestrian gate providing access into the delightfully appointed, fully enclosed and low-maintenance rear garden.

This attractive outdoor space is predominantly laid to artificial lawn, complemented by partially planted borders and a mature tree, creating a pleasant setting for relaxation and outdoor enjoyment. There is raised concrete hardstanding with provision for a garden shed, while an extensive paved seating area, enhanced by decorative gravelled borders, offers the perfect space for entertaining. Connecting effortlessly with the impressive open-plan living area through bi-fold doors, creating a wonderful seamless transition between indoor and outdoor living.

Further benefits include an external water tap, with a combination of brick walling and fencing forming the left-side boundary, while the right-side and rear boundaries are fully enclosed by timber fencing.
