Of brick built construction, with a pitched tiled roof. Accessed via a manual up/over garage door. Equipped with power, lighting and useful over-head eaves storage space. An obscure left sided personal door gives access out to the garden.

EXTERNALLY:

This impressive detached home occupies a popular and convenient residential location, set back from the road and approached via a shared tarmac driveway. This leads to an extensive private tarmac driveway, providing ample side-by-side off-road parking for numerous vehicles and access to a detached double garage. There is also access to the gas and electricity meters.

To the front, a complementary paved pathway leads to the entrance porch, with attractive gravelled borders. The front garden is predominantly laid to lawn and complemented by well-maintained low-level hedging that leads round to the left side aspect.

A timber pedestrian gate on the driveway opens through to the delightful, well-appointed rear garden, which is partly enclosed by brick walling and predominantly laid to lawn, with a variety of established shrubs and trees providing an attractive backdrop. A pathway leads to a generous modern paved seating and entertaining area, which can also be accessed directly from the open-plan living/dining kitchen via uPVC double-glazed French doors. The paved area continues around the side of the property to create an additional secluded seating space. There is an outside tap, a walled boundary to the left-hand side, a combination of walling and fencing to the right, and a fenced rear boundary. The detached double garage can also be accessed directly from the garden via a pedestrian door.
