EXTERNALLY:

This spacious first-floor home enjoys a peaceful yet convenient position within a quiet residential cul-de-sac, surrounded by attractive, well-maintained communal green spaces.

To the front, a paved pathway leads through a secure timber pedestrian gate onto a shared paved walkway with one ground floor home, providing access to the property's private ground-floor entrance door.

The apartment also benefits from access to a wonderfully well-appointed, beautifully mature and thoughtfully landscaped side garden. Predominantly laid to decorative gravel for ease of maintenance, this delightful outdoor space showcases a vast array of established bushes, shrubs and mature planting, creating an attractive and secluded setting. A desirable paved seating area provides the perfect spot for outdoor relaxation, whilst fully fenced boundaries further enhance the sense of privacy.

A paved pathway continues towards a detached concrete sectional garage, with small concrete hardstanding to the front and wrought-iron double entrance gates, providing excellent storage facilities and practical accessibility. The generous proportions of the garden also present exciting potential for the creation of additional off-road parking, subject to the necessary permissions and dropped kerb approval. Ample visitor parking is available to the front of the property on a first-come, first-served basis.
